

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, January 13. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 14.

Bologna, December 27.

THE German Troops that came last from the Milaneze, and are design'd for Naples, continue at S. Nicolo, and demand 500 Doubloons a Day during the time they were stopp'd there till the Pope's Pleasure concerning the furnishing them with Subsistance was known. Last Night the Count of Castellanico, with a Retinue in 4 Post-Chaises, arriv'd here; and this Morning pursu'd his Journey to Florence, to treat with the great Duke of Tuscany about Contributions for the Imperialists for the ensuing Year.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 13.

Milan, Dec. 26. Letters are sent to all the Italian Princes that are Feudatories of the Empire, earnestly to press them to pay forthwith the Sums for Contribution, at which they were rated by Prince Eugene before his Departure from hence to Vienna.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 12.

Warsaw, Dec. 19. The Muscovite General Ronne, who had lain some time at Pultowsk with 11 Regiments, having consum'd what Provisions that Part of the Country could furnish, is march'd to Brzeze laying waste all behind him. The Swedes give out they will follow the Muscovites, and that by the end of January they will be on the Frontiers of Muscovy; but that 10 or 12 Regiments will be left in great Poland, till the Treaty relating to Religion in Silesia is intirely executed. When the Turkish Minister had his 2d Audience in the Swedish Chancery, the King was not present; so he deliver'd to Count Piper a Letter for his Majesty written with the Grand Signior's own Hand. A few Days after he had another Audience, the King and his Privy Council being present: At that Time he renew'd the Proposition he had formerly made, namely that the grand Signior was ready to send an Army against the Czar of Muscovy, provided his Swedish Majesty and King Stanislaus would oblige themselves to keep on the War against him for a certain Time: The Answer return'd him was, that his Swedish Majesty was oblig'd to the grand Signior for the Offer he had thought fit to make to him, but that he hop'd by the Assistance of Heaven to overcome his Enemy, and reduce him to the same Condition he had done others.

From the Amst. Cour. and Lied. Gaz. dated Jan. 14.

Hamburg, Jan. 10. Letters from Poland tell us, that the Swedes have newly caus'd 2 Bridges to be laid over the Vistula, and have lately receiv'd in their Camp 300 Waggons with Stores of War from Great Poland. From Warsaw of the 25th of December they write, that the Palatine of Kiovia had notified to all the Palatinats by circular Letters, his Advancement to the Office of great General of the Army of the Crown by King Stanislaus, in the Room of M. Senia wski whom that King has declar'd to be discharg'd from that Employment: And that he has forbid the paying of any Contributions to the said Army, but to such only as produce an Order under his Hand. Deputies from the District of Warsaw had waited on King Stanislaus, and congratulated him on his Arrival in their Neighbourhood; and desir'd him at the same Time, that he would use his good Offices with the King of Sweden, to the End the Contributions demanded for the Swedish Troops might be moderated. These Advices from Warsaw say they had an Account from Cave, that the Muscovite Prince Repnin was preparing to march from thence in Conjunction with General Oginski, to offer Battle to Prince Wiefnowski, who lay near Neustad with his Lithuanian Troops and 2 or 3 Regiments of Swedes.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 14.

Liege, Jan. 10. Letters from Paris Advise, that all things were settled by the Court for the next Campaign in Germany; and that the Marshal de Villars was to set out for the Rhine to undertake some Enterprize if the Weather should turn Frosty. The raising of Recruits for their Land-Forces was carry'd on with all possible Diligence; and 'twas reported some new Regiments will be rais'd as soon as the old are compleated. These Advices add, that the King had not actually declar'd the Generals who are to command his Armies in Chief the ensuing Campaign; but 'twas not doubted the Duke of Vendome would be continu'd at the Head of the Army in the Netherlands, where the Troops are to be put into a better Condition than they have been at any time hitherto. The Elector of Bavaria lives with great Jollity at Mons, yet is careful to fill up his own Troops against the Campaign.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 13.

Amsterdam, Jan. 12. Letters from Leenwarden of the 3d of this Month give an Account, that his Highness Count Gustavus Carlson, Count of Borringhen, Lord of Lindholm, &c. died suddenly at his Seat of Ter Horn at Beergum the 1st Instant, in the 59th Year of his Age. He was a natural Son of Charles Gustavus King of Sweden, and legitimated by him; he marry'd the Baroness of Schwartzenberg, descended from one of the most noble and ancient Families of Franconia, but had no Issue by her. He was a Prince of excellent Qualifications, and is much lamented.

Plymouth, Jan. 9. The 7th Instant came in the Ann Frigate off and for London William Jesse Commander from the Canaries, with Wine, but last from Penzance. Whilst he lay there, an English Paquet-boat from Falmouth for Lisbon put into that Place, which had met with a French Privateer of 40 Guns which oblig'd her to strike, but the Sea running high high and Night coming on, she escap'd the Privateer. Last Night it was very tempestuous Weather, but did no Damage to the Ships in this Port.

Farmouth, Jan. 8. Here are in this Road her Majesty's Ships the Flamborough and Merlin, with the Lynn Fleet, about 16 Sail bound for the River.
